Hope Lutheran Church and Student Center is a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and a community of growing disciples of Jesus Christ who love our neighbors, both near and far. We affirm that everyone is created in the image of God and is deserving of God's love and grace. We recognize that for many people, "church" has not always felt like a welcoming place. We celebrate our human family's diversity of sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, race, ethnicity, culture, and age. We embrace differences in relationship status, physical and mental ability, education, income, worldview, and political affiliation. We are committed to the full inclusion of all people in our community and invite you to journey with us toward a deeper faith, mutual respect, greater love and understanding, and reconciliation through Jesus Christ.

If you need to leave the sanctuary for any reason, you may view the service from a phone or another device. You are welcome to return to worship for communion, fellowship, or any portion of special interest to you.

Gathering: The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

Welcome

Confession and Forgiveness

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, whose compassion endures forever.

Amen.

Let us confess our sin to God.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Compassionate God,
we confess to you all our sins.
Our burden is heavy, and we cannot free ourselves.
In your mercy, call us back to you.
Your yoke is easy and your burden is light.
Restore us to dwell in your peace.
In Christ's name we pray,
Amen.

Jesus says, "Come to me,
all you who are weary
and are carrying heavy burdens,
and I will give you rest."
In the name of God,
Father, † Son, and Holy Spirit,
your sins are forgiven.
Rest in God's love.
Amen.

Leader: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty Creator and ever-living God: we worship your glory, eternal Three-in-One, and we praise your power, majestic One-in-Three. Keep us steadfast in this faith, defend us in all adversity, and bring us at last into your presence, where you live in endless joy and love, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Passing the Peace

Leader: The Peace of Christ be with you all.

All: And also with you.

You may stay in your seat or walk around to greet others, often saying "peace be with you".

Word: God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching and song.

All: Glory to You, O Lord.

Gospel

Matthew 28:16-20

¹⁶ Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷ When they saw him, they worshiped him, but they doubted. ¹⁸ And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit ²⁰ and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Repeat after the Leader:

That's the story of God and God's people.

God, thanks for your story.

Dismissal

Children are welcome to stay or are invited downstairs to continue reflecting on this story.

Gospel Acclamation: Halle-Halle-Hallelujah (music on page 4)

↴ First Reading

Genesis 1:1—2:4a

L: In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light, and there was light.

P: And God saw that the light was good;

L: and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night.

C: And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

L: And God said, "Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome.

P: And it was so.

L: God called the dome Sky.

C: And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

L: And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear."

P: And it was so.

L: God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas.

P: And God saw that it was good.

L: Then God said, "Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it."

P: And it was so.

L: The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it.

P: And God saw that it was good.

C: And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

L: And God said, "Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth."

P: And it was so.

L: God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, ¹⁸to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness.

P: And God saw that it was good.

C: And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

L: And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky." So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind.

P: And God saw that it was good.

L: God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth."

C: And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day

L: And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind."

P: And it was so.

L: God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind.

P: And God saw that it was good.

L: Then God said, "Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth." So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth."

God said, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food."

P: And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good.

C: And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

L: Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

[Paul writes:] ¹¹ Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Be restored; listen to my appeal; agree with one another; live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. ¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

¹³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Leader: Word of God, Word of Life.

All: Thanks be to God.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

The assisting minister leads a series of prayer petitions. We join in praying together; we end each petition with the close-and-response: "God of grace," with the response: "hear our prayer."

Gathered together by the Holy Spirit, let us pray for the church and the needs of the world.

A brief silence.

Holy God, we are in awe of your creative work. Continue that work in your church, making us a new creation that proclaims your presence and love. God of grace, hear our prayer.

Creator God, nature reveals your power and glory. Protect water sources, vegetation, and wildlife as reminders of who you are. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Redeemer God, you call us to pray for those in authority. Guide our leaders to pursue the work of fostering peace and community. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Sustaining God, you are mindful of your people in every circumstance. Heal those who are sick. Provide for all who hunger. Protect those in harm's way. Comfort any experiencing hardship. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Gracious God, we pray for the children of our church and community. Provide for their needs. Support their caregivers. Nurture their faith. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

(With the assisting minister, please pray out loud the first name of each person for whom we pray. If you would like to add a name to the prayer list, please secure the person's consent, then reach out to Lauren in the office.)

We pray for people who have requested our ongoing prayers:

John Henry,
Dolores,

Sheena (relative of Rick),
Jytte (pronounced YOU-ta) (Karin's grandmother),
Angelo,
Terry,
Maya,
Barry,
Pastor Beth,
Santiago and family,
Nan,
Lynne.

[pause]

And for those who have requested prayers for a time or a season:

Pastor Julie, Katesh, & Nimi, as they mourn the death of Silas, Julie,
Danielle, as she prepares for upcoming surgery,
Dale, as he recovers at home from an automobile accident,
Steve, ongoing health issues,
Matt,
Maria,
Rich (uncle of Pastor Ray), as he recovers from surgery to remove a tumor,
Bill, recovering from a stroke,
Raeann (niece of Bonnie),
Karen and Levi,
Tatenda, on his graduation,
Mariella,
Mali, mother of a friend of the quilters,
Bernice, as she moves from her family home to Brightview in Annapolis,
Trudy, awaiting healing,
Jake (cousin of Pastor Ray), who is in the military and has been deployed to the Middle East,
The People of Iran,
The People of Palestine,
The People of Ukraine,
Our elected leaders,
Humble Walk Students, the Lutheran Campus Ministry at UMD, for safety on their travels in Europe, Living Water, a Seventh Day Adventist Church, who worships at Hope

on Saturdays,
Christian Stability Ministry, a community of refugees who worship at Hope on Sundays,
Our bishops, Yehiel and Phil,

and those we name silently or aloud [...pause...]

when it seems all are done

Merciful God,
receive our prayer.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

Loving God, we give thanks for those who have died and claimed their baptismal promises. Strengthen us to live as they did in communion with you. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

Trusting you receive all our prayers, we commend our spoken and unspoken prayers to you, O God, through Jesus our Savior.
Amen.

Kids' Message

↑ Opening Communion Song 472: Eat This Bread

Refrain

“Eat this bread, drink this cup, come to me and nev - er be hun - gry.
OR Je - sus Christ, bread of life, those who come to you will not hun - ger.

Eat this bread, drink this cup, trust in me and you will not thirst.”
Je - sus Christ, ris - en Lord, those who trust in you will not thirst.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy,
that we should at all times and in all places
give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ;
who on this day overcame death and the grave,
and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.
And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

You Are Holy

Du är he - lig, du är hel. Du är all - tid myck-et mer
You are ho - ly, you are whole. You are al - ways ev - er more än vi nån - sin kan för - stå, du är nä - ra än - då.

than we ev - er un - der - stand. You are al - ways at hand.

Väl - sig - nad va - re du som kom - mer hit just nu, Bless - ed are you com - ing near. Bless - ed are you com - ing here väl - sig - na - de vår jord, blir till bröd på vår jord.

to your church in wine and bread, raised from soil, raised from dead.

Du är he - lig, du är hel - het,
You are ho - ly, you are whole - ness, du är när - het he - la kos - mos lo - var dig!

you are pres - ent. Let the cos - mos praise you, Lord!

Ho - si - an - na, ho - si - an - na,
Sing ho - san - na in the high - est!

ho - si - an - na, ho - si - an - na vår Gud.
Sing ho - san - na! Sing ho - san - na to our God!

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

The Lord's Prayer

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.
Amen.

↓ Our Communion Practices

Everyone is welcome to participate in communion. Today Hope offers gluten free bread, white grape juice and white wine. Juice and wine will be served with pouring chalices. As you come forward to the altar rail, pick up a communion glass. Tell the server if you prefer wine or grape juice. The server will pour into your communion glass. When finished, place the empty glass in one of the round holes at the altar rail or give it to the usher who will be at the baptismal font. You may choose to receive bread only and/or any of the cup options. Any version of communion carries the full power of communion. If you prefer not to receive elements, you may cross your arms over your chest for a no-contact, verbal blessing. You are invited forward to stand or kneel at the railing; after those who wish to come forward receive, servers will bring communion to those who prefer to stay in your seats.

Communion Hymn 735: Mothering God, You Gave Me Birth

1 Moth - er - ing God, you gave me birth in the bright

↑ Post Communion Blessing

May the body and blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ strengthen you and let you know how much you are always kept in God's grace.
Amen.

Sending: God blesses us and sends us in mission to the world.

Benediction

Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer, ✠ one God,
bless, heal, and hold you
today and always.
Amen.

Announcements

Sunday Childcare During Service: During the academic year, childcare is available for children during worship. The childcare providers have a clear background check on file. The students will care for the children and lead activities during worship. Over the summer break students travel home and might not always be available to provide childcare. Parents may use the childcare room if their children choose to leave worship.

Resilience Check In, a Facilitated Conversation: Join us today following worship! After that we plan to meet every other week: June 14 and June 28. With all that is happening in our country, our world, and our own lives, we need a chance to reflect and share together. About 15 people stay after worship to talk together. As all things at church this is non-partisan, though it does reflect our Christian values. We hope this is a safe space to identify our concerns, anxieties, and eventually the ways we could respond and support our community.

Franklins Fundraiser to Benefit the CUCE Day Center: On Tuesday, June 2 there is an all-day fundraiser that supports the PG Plaza Day Center run by Congregations United for Compassion and Empowerment (CUCE). You can eat inside, order carry-out for lunch or dinner, purchase a gift certificate, or shop in the general store. Franklins will donate 20 percent of your before-tax total, but you must show your receipt to the host to participate.

Quilters of Hope: Join us on Tuesday, June 9. The group will cut, sew, tie and make quilts for neighbors around the world in need of some comfort and care. Anyone can join this group on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month, 10am-noon at Hope. No experience necessary. Contact Arlene for more information: WV1958@hotmail.com

Vacation Bible School: Join us the week of July 27-31 from 12-3pm for a week of summer fun here at Hope! Water games, crafts, science, snacks, bible exploring, and more! Ages 3 through rising 6th grade can attend. Suggested donation is $10/camper or $20/family. VBS is for everyone, regardless of ability to make a donation. All Communion Bread is Gluten Free: The flour used in the recipe is gluten free. If you need the ingredients, please ask this month's baker for them.

Pastoral Care: If you have a pastoral need between now and June 1, please contact Pastor Dave at dslaglepeck@gmail.com or 605.291.9200 or Pastor Lamar at pastorcelcbethesda@gmail.com or 717.688.4251. You may also always contact Lauren in Hope's office or any member of council.

Update on the Property Building Project: Over the past several years, Hope Lutheran Church has been in conversation with a Chicago based real estate company — Article Student Living Holdings — about the possibility of selling the church's property. The agreement we signed last year would see hundreds of student apartments built that would be owned and managed by the company, a new church would be built, and in addition the congregation would be paid approximately 12 million dollars.

We signed a real estate agreement with the company in 2025 that formally started the process, including the initial zoning period. In April of this year we were informed by the company that their environmental studies and permitting process revealed that an extensive portion of the Hope property was part of a flood plain and that no construction would be possible in that area.

This news dramatically changes the number of apartments that the company would be able to build, and would also reduce the amount of money that the church would be paid.

Due to this news about the flood plain, the company has cancelled our 2025 agreement, which is both within their right and expected, based on the environmental studies, according to Hope's lawyer. The company will begin a reexamination of the project in order to ascertain if a project of a different scale would be possible. The company has still expressed interest in a project with Hope, and is evaluating possible options to present to the church. Hope Church will wait to hear from the company. In the meantime, Hope will incur no further expenses related to the project.

This will be a period of waiting for the congregation as the company develops a new plan, or alternatively, informs us that they are withdrawing completely.

In the meantime, the Hope Council decided at its May meeting to form a working group, consisting of Council members and members of the congregation, to study the maintenance required for the existing building in the short, medium and long terms, and to brainstorm about how the existing building can be best utilized to serve existing programming as well as future possibilities.

We know that this might be a shock -- or a gut punch -- to many, as it feels like we have been praying and working for many years towards this project. We knew that the project would need the permits to go forward and that there was a risk about the flood plain, but certainly we hoped it wouldn't cause any dramatic changes or delays.

The company did provide us a map of the flood plain, which they used their own resources to pay for. You can find it here:

We continue to pray and trust in God, while going about being church in this time and place and sharing love and the Good News of Jesus far and wide.
